Built in the early 1960's, these 31 modern and very well maintained apartments have varying floor plans ranging from 600 to 1100 square feet. Each apartment is appointed with a color scheme to complement just about any furniture style. With plenty of closet and storage space, these apartments are ideal for transitioning from a larger home. Most of the units have a private patio or balcony where you can enjoy the beautifully landscaped lawn and gardens in the private courtyard. You will experience a real sense of community with your active and friendly group of neighbors.

Apartment Criteria

The Clinton Street Apartments are home to a thriving community of age 62 and older adults. There is no elevator access in these apartments. Residents must be able to climb 17 steps to access the second floor units. Ground floor units are only available to existing residents by means of a waiting list. New residents should anticipate a 2-3 year wait for a ground floor apartment.

Amenities

The Washington Odd Fellows Home is nestled on a ten-acre park-like setting in a residential neighborhood adjacent to Whitman College. Enjoy the indoor swimming pool and spa along with a workout room with stationary bicycles and other fitness equipment just a short walk away. You are also welcome to use our Wellness Center for exercise classes or individual exercise programs. For social gatherings, there is a picnic shelter right outside your back door where you can enjoy potlucks, barbecues, and other social events. The laundry facilities are conveniently located close to your apartment. Carports, complete with an extra storage space, are available for your car and storage needs at a nominal charge.

Extra Services

Although your apartment includes a complete kitchen, you may choose to purchase meal tickets and dine in the main dining room located on our campus. You and your guests may also enjoy visiting our café bistro known as The Well for a light meal or espresso. Housekeeping services are available for a nominal charge. Medical transportation, activities, and social events are also available to all residents at no charge. We encourage you to take advantage of the many opportunities for entertainment, fellowship, and community service that we offer throughout our campus.
