Built in 2000, these 50 elegant apartments are home to a thriving community of age 62 and older adults. There are eight different floor plans ranging from 700 to 900 square feet. Each apartment is appointed with a color scheme to compliment just about any furniture you bring. The all electric units are equipped with refrigerators, ranges, dishwashers and garbage disposals. You control the heat and air conditioning through your own heat pump. The kitchen is separated from the living room by a breakfast bar and just off the living room each apartment has its own private patio or balcony.

Security

The main entrances to the building are locked at all times. For your convenience your room key allows access to the main entry doors. Easy access for guests to visit at the push of a button from inside your apartment. In addition to the ample storage space in your apartment there are private and secure storage lockers in the basement, which is accessible by elevator.

Amenities

The Washington Odd Fellows Home is nestled on a ten acre park-like setting in a residential neighborhood adjacent to Whitman College. Enjoy the indoor swimming pool and spa along with a workout room with stationary bicycles and other fitness equipment. For social gatherings there is the spacious, Fireside Room with a cozy spot to relax by the fireplace. There are six laundry rooms, two on each floor. You are also welcome to use the Wellness Center for exercise classes or individual exercise programs.

Extra Services

Although your apartment includes a complete kitchen, you may choose to purchase meal tickets and dine in the main dining room located on our campus. You and your guests may also enjoy visiting our café bistro known as The Well for a light meal or espresso. Housekeeping services are available for a nominal charge. Medical transportation, activities, and social events are also available to all residents at no charge. We encourage you to take advantage of the many opportunities for entertainment, fellowship, and community service that we offer throughout our campus.
